

snug cove b & b Testimonials

“Hi Jen/Eric

All six of us returned to HK safely last night. In our 3,200 km Aussie trip (Sydney - Canberra - Melbourne - Southern Coast - Sydney), our stay at Eden (Snug Cove B&B) was the highlight.

We were impressed by the sensational view, world-class accommodation, and most importantly the genuine Aussie hospitality which cannot be traded with money.

I'll spread my words of your place and have more people to enjoy this piece of hidden gem stone.

Keep up the good work and let the legend continue.

Best regards

Chris

“Jen and Eric

Thank you so much for a fabulous stay!

You have been so accommodating despite our desperate attempts to throw you off with midnight arrivals, thousands of questions and our American coffee habits.

You made the stay glorious (and the views + delicious food didn't hurt).

Good luck in all your endeavours.

“Dear Jennifer and Eric,

Perhaps you don't remember us, a grey-haired Swedish couple who stayed in your B&B March 2-3. We are sending this e-mail just in order to tell you what a great afternoon, night (with a koala in our bed) and unforgettable breakfast you gave us in Eden!

We travelled around for one month before meeting you and stayed in Sydney for another month before trying to return to Sweden. We said try because we met the volcanic ash when changing flights in London so we got an extra week vacation in UK before we succeeded in hiring a bus together with other Swedes to get a 30 hours nonstop trip to Stockholm.

We have been in Australia 11 times before, we have also visited Eden before, so we have seen a lot but believe us the Snugcove is one of the best places we ever have seen.

We really wish you good luck with your B&B so many tourists can enjoy your hospitality
Yours

Karin and Claes”

“Congratulations Jennifer and Eric - may your business go from strength to strength. Snug Cove was certainly one of the highlights of our Australian Holiday inspite of the rain!

Best wishes

“Dear Jennifer and Eric, our honeymoon didn't make provision for Eden but when we came we decided to stop for another day. The place and the company are very, very exceptional.

Thank You
