

ASX: LVH MARKET RELEASE

Retirement of Michael Rennie

20 October 2023 | Melbourne, Victoria

LiveHire Ltd ("LiveHire" or the "Company", ASX:LVH), announces the retirement of Non-Executive Director, Michael Rennie, as a LiveHire Director effective from the AGM on November 28th 2023.

Michael joined the Board in March 2018 and stepped into the Chairman as the challenges of COVID emerged. Michael played a critical role supporting the business and its executive during this period (including a period as Executive Chair) in ensuring product market fit, establishing the ANZ sales force, launching LiveHire in North America while also resizing the business.

Although Michael is retiring from the Board he has generously agreed to remain involved with LiveHire through helping to establish the Company's Indigenous employment marketplace. LiveHire currently has nearly a quarter of Australia's indigenous working population on its system and we believe we can use our technology to improve Indigenous employment in Australia, both by increasing the number of Indigenous in paid employment as well as by improving the quality of jobs. Michael will work with the LiveHire team to introduce leading Australian companies as charter clients of the Indigenous marketplace.

Michael wishes to thank LiveHire's management team and Board for their tremendous efforts on behalf of the company and their camaraderie and support during his time on the Board, "LiveHire has a unique product and truly wonderful people. It is in very good hands with Andrew Rutherford and Cris Buningh at the Board level and with Christy Forest CEO, Ben Brooks CFO and Chris Cooper CRO leading day to day operations. I will be remaining a shareholder and am excited to invest my time supporting the LiveHire Indigenous opportunity".

CEO, Christy Forest, said, "Michael has been truly instrumental in the most seminal years of value creation for LiveHire. I am deeply grateful for the partnership Michael provided my team and myself as we built an unmatched reputation in APAC and North America, meaningful client outcomes and a healthy, sustainable business through some of the most volatile and challenging business cycles globally. I am especially grateful that Michael's passion for impact will continue with one of LiveHire's most meaningful projects yet, our launch of an Indigenous talent marketplace that will transform hiring outcomes and the lives of indigenous Australians."

Board Chair, Andrew Rutherford, said, "We will all miss Michael's very significant contribution at the Board and are indebted to him for his 5 years of contribution as a Director and Chair. The Company's position as a leading market provider in the very competitive US market is a tribute to the work Michael and Christy led over the last few years. I am very grateful for Michael's service to the company, personal support and generous commitment to lead the launch of our Indigenous Marketplace service. We wish Michael well in his future endeavours."

Authorised for release to ASX by the Board of LiveHire Ltd.
