

Executive Leadership Team Changes

ASX Release: 20 March 2024, Melbourne

Praemium Limited (ASX:PPS) (Praemium or Company) advises that Ms Lorna Stewart has been appointed Chief Risk Officer (CRO). Lorna has an extensive background in risk management roles including with Insignia Financial, Bupa and PwC and will commence with Praemium on 15 April.

Praemium also advises that Ms Rachel Axton has resigned from the company and will be leaving on 27 March to pursue other opportunities.

In announcing the changes, Praemium CEO, Mr Anthony Wamsteker, said "I am delighted that an executive of Lorna's experience and capability has elected to join Praemium. She will be a great addition to our Executive Leadership Team and will make a valuable contribution to our culture, strategy and execution capabilities. I would also like to thank Rachel for the contribution she has made to restructuring and building our risk management framework and team and wish her well in her future endeavours."

This announcement is authorised by the CEO of Praemium Limited. For further information contact David Coulter, CFO, Ph: 1800 571 881

Praemium Limited (ABN 74 098 405 826), Level 19, 367 Collins Street, Melbourne VIC 3000 Australia