Manager of Emu East Tenure (formerly Redbank West) Appointed

- Pursuant to the Option Agreement between the Company and Teck Australia Pty Ltd (“Teck”) (see November 2, 2023 release), Teck have requested that they be appointed as the manager of four adjoining tenements, (EL32464, EL32465, EL32466, EL32467) known as Emu East (formerly Redbank West).

NT Minerals Limited (ASX: NTM) (‘NT Minerals’, ‘NTM’ or ‘the Company’) is pleased to announce that Teck have requested, and the Company has agreed, to appoint Teck (or Teck’s nominee) as the registered manager of the Emu East tenements.

NTM’s Managing Director Rodney Illingworth commented, “We are pleased of the commitment that a company of the calibre of Teck are making to be appointed the manager of the tenements and take on full responsibility for liaising with regulators and other stakeholders and to be responsible for all reporting and mine management plans.”

The Emu East zinc-lead project, made up of the four adjoining tenements, covering more than 3,000km<sup>2</sup>, is centred 80km south of Borroloola, immediately east of both the world-class McArthur River Zinc Mine and Merlin Diamond Mine within the southeast McArthur Basin.
