AIH and Alinta confirm alliance

Alinta Infrastructure Holdings (AIH) has today executed a binding Memorandum of Understanding (MOU) with Alinta Limited (Alinta).

The directors of AIH believe that Alinta's proposed merger with AGL will provide AIH stapled security holders with significant opportunities to acquire a major portfolio of quality infrastructure assets which Alinta will acquire through the proposed schemes of arrangement.

Alinta and AIH have re-confirmed their commercial arrangements as follows:

An MOU has been executed so as to maintain the present Alinta/AIH relationship between the proposed head entity of the merged Alinta/AGL entities and AIH.

In signing the MOU, Alinta has also agreed to commence discussions with AIH regarding the possible acquisition by AIH of some of the AGL infrastructure assets. In return, AIH has waived its rights of first refusal over Alinta's Western Australian co-generation assets.

This outcome further reinforces AIH's relationship with Alinta and positively reaffirms the intention that AIH is Alinta's primary infrastructure growth vehicle.
